

PROOF OF IDENTITY

When applying for a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check it is necessary for you to verify your identity in line with Australia's National Identity Security Strategy. To achieve this, you must at a minimum provide the below ID requirements needed for a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check:

- provide a minimum of three (3) documents
- provide one Commencement of identity document; one Primary use in the community document; and one Secondary use in the community documents.

In combination, your documents must include your full name, date of birth, and a photograph. If none of the documents contain a photo, you must submit a certified passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in Schedule 1 of the Statutory Declarations Regulations 2023 (Cth).

Commencement of identity documents

1. Full Australian Birth Certificate issued by Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages (birth extract, birth card or commemorative certificates cannot be accepted)

Other important information to know

Please note that it is an Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) requirement of fit2work to link identity documents to the Applicant as a part of the application process. To do so, it may be necessary to require additional documents to be uploaded as well as make all enquiries necessary to satisfy this requirement. fit2work is required, and will report any suspicion of identity fraud detected on the platform to the relevant Australian Police Service and the ACIC.

Applications must be made by the Applicant for whom the check is sought, or somebody authorised to make the application on the applicant's behalf (e.g. parent, legal guardian or authorised agent). The link between identity documents and the Applicant must still be satisfied by fit2work.

Other documentation required as part of the application

Selfie Requirements

ACIC requires fit2work to confirm the link between the Applicant and the identity documents supplied to minimise identity fraud in Australia. The linkage is about assurance; achieving a level of confidence that the application and identity documents represent the Applicant. An Applicant can do this by posting a photo of themselves in a “selfie” format while holding identification containing photo to enable a comparison to be made. The photo ID needs to be an identification document from either the commencement or primary document category. Please refer to the link for instructions <https://www.equifax.com.au/acicphoto>.

Other identification documentation that may be required

Change of Name document

Applicants are encouraged to provide all identity documents in their primary legal name. Where an Applicant provides identification in a former name, evidence of the name change must be provided in addition to the minimum three (3) identity documents. This means providing either a:

- change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages;
- an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory (church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted);
- Deed Poll; or
- A relationship certificate issued by a state or territory Births, Deaths and Marriages

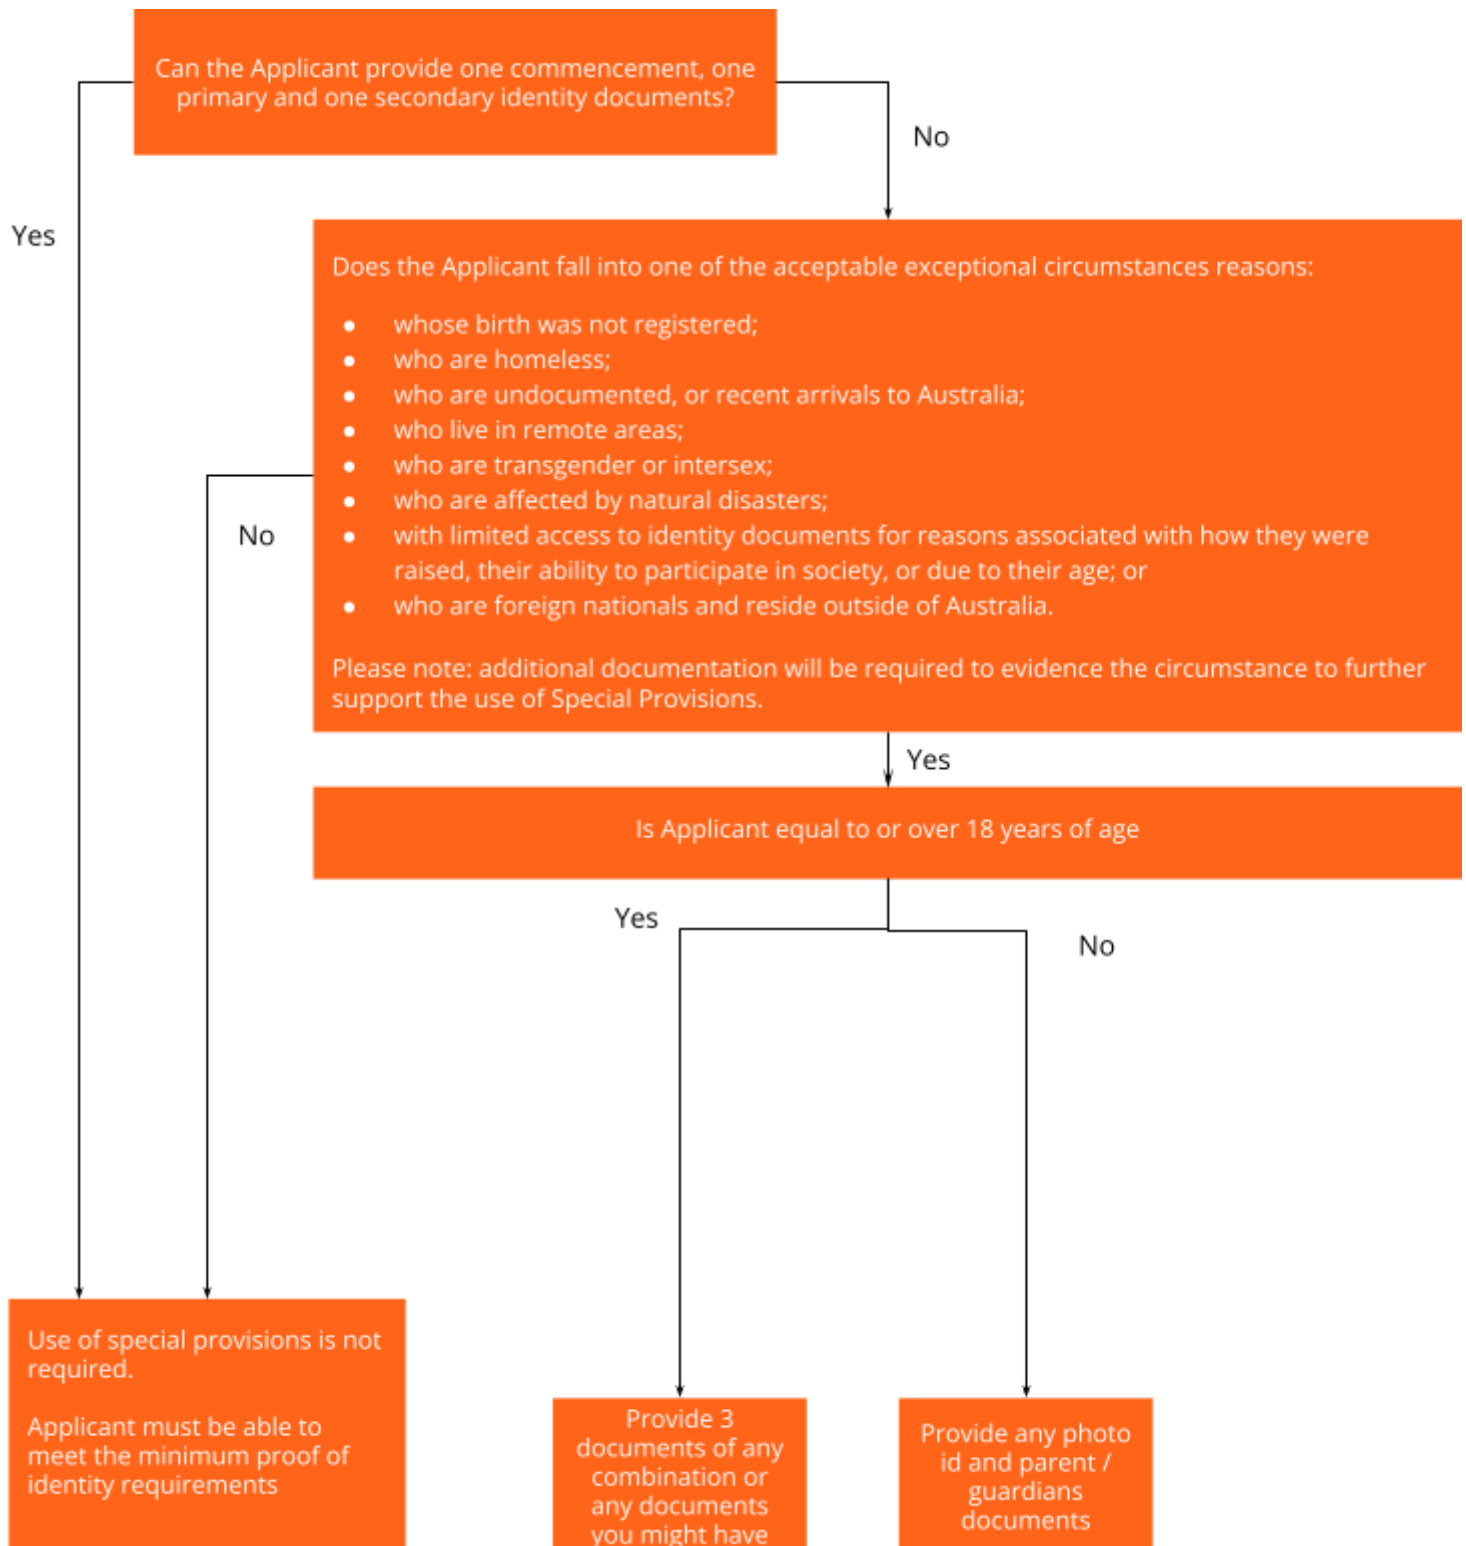

An example is where an Applicant provides their birth certificate in their maiden name as their commencement document but all other documents are in their primary name, a change of name document such as a marriage certificate is required as a fourth document. The marriage certificate cannot be used as part of the minimum three (3) identity documents.

Insufficient identification documents

We recognise that some applicants may need to renew or obtain relevant documentation to verify their identity prior to submitting a check. But in some cases, applicants may find it difficult to provide the evidence to identify themselves in line with minimum requirements. In these cases, there is an exceptional circumstances approach which allows an Applicant to use this process to verify the identity. Please refer to the decision tree below to determine if Special Provisions may be used.

Please note: The use of special provisions is used in very limited and exceptional circumstances and we recommend obtaining the required identity documents before submitting the application. Any applications submitted via Special Provisions will be assessed against the qualifying criteria and decision made as to the suitability of the request. If the application is declined, the Applicant may be requested to provide further evidence/documentation.

Decision tree for determining appropriate special provision as provided by ACIC

Special Provisions for not having required ID Documents

Please consider whether you meet any of the the conditions for Special Provision

- The below are the reasons for selecting the special provision. Reasons for exceptional circumstances may include:
